Criterion 7.1.1.

Counseling:

Guru Nanak Institute of Technology shows utmost concern towards the wellbeing of students. To address the student stress, career advice and family concerns, the Institute has set up a Student Counseling Center looked after by a qualified counselor. The counseling service addresses various degrees of the problem faced and provides appropriate solutions. The counselors delve deep into issues to ensure maximum student well being and satisfaction. The services are free, open to all the students and totally confidential. The student is asked to visit the counselor on a scheduled day in a fixed Counseling Room. The counselor counsels the students according to his/her problem after registering the identification and keeping all the information confidential.

Mentor Mentee:

Mentoring, which is a part of the regular academic program, also includes counseling. All the academic Mentors regularly counsel the students regarding various mental, physical and career-related issues.

Counseling Cell Members and their role:

There exists a Counseling Cell manned by senior faculty members.

Members of the Counseling cell are:

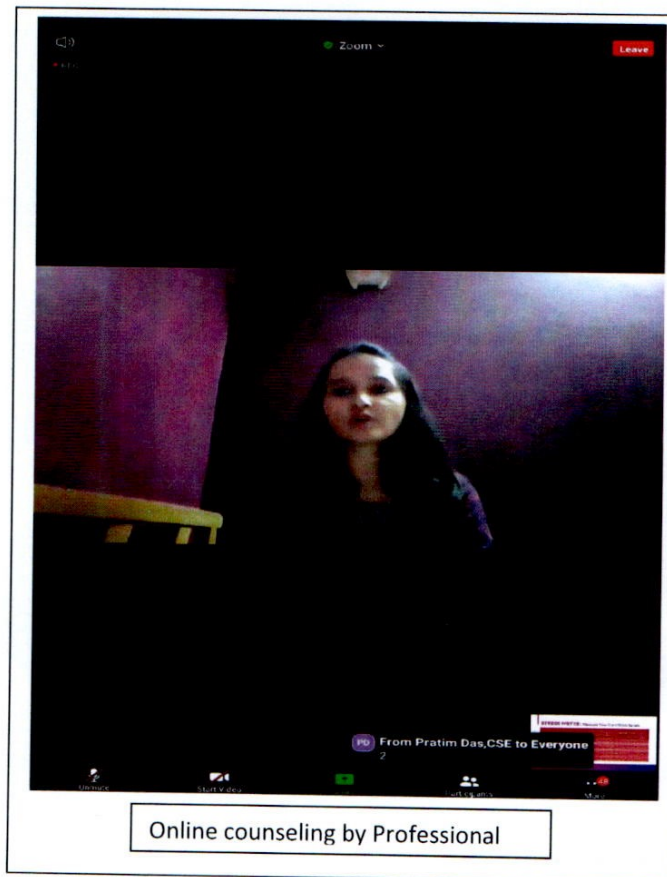

Prof Dr. Sucharita Chakrabarti, Prof. Dr. Sucharita Bhattacharya, Dr.Indrajit Bose, Dr. Sreyasree Basu, Mr. Goutam Mandal, Mr. Tridib Chakborti, Mrs . Mitrabinda Neogi, Mrs. Shubhra Chakroborti. These members provide regular counseling and advice to all students.

Case-specific counseling and serious issues are dealt with by the Clinical Psychologist Ms. Srishti Saha. She also provides online counseling to students during the pandemic situation. The students facing mental or psychological problems and feeling maladjusted come to meet the counselor. Confidentially, the counselor talks to him / her and fixes a date and time for counseling in a specific Counseling Room where safety and privacy are ensured.
